Fifth Sunday after The Epiphany

February 6 & 7, 2010

Epiphany

Cor. 15:1-11

Epiphany. Little Christmas. The visit of the Magi to the Christ Child.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines epiphany as “a sudden manifestation of the essential meaning of something.” Epiphany is not simply an “aha”! moment! It is a flash of light about something basic; something true in the most profound sense. It is a realization.

When you remember where you put your winter boots, that is not an epiphany. That’s just luck. When you realize what you’ve been doing wrong that causes your cakes to fall, that is not an epiphany, either. That’s just finally learning something by trial and error.

When you realize that Jesus Christ is truly human and truly divine, as we think the Magi did, that is an epiphany.

St. Paul, as he writes to the Corinthians, tells us in the simplest, most specific language possible what that epiphany—that truth realized in Christ—means for us: that Christ died for our sins, that he was raised from the dead, and that many saw the resurrected Jesus, so we can trust the information. When that penetrates our hearts and minds, that is our epiphany.

Dear Lord Jesus,

Be born anew in us this day. Satisfy our longings to know thee. Teach us the meaning of this life you give us. Impel us to live it fully, in your Grace, day by day. Amen.

-Chris Goble

Scriptures for February 14, 2010

First Lesson: Exodus 34:29-35

Psalm 99

Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 3:12- 4:2

Holy Gospel: Luke 9:28-36

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.
We believe the Lord led you here.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery. —Thank you

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

Prayer Concerns

Let us know how we can pray for you. Call the office: 303-776-8771.
